FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
LEVI P. MORTON,
OF NEW YORK

The beauties of the free-trade system in England, to which Mr. Cleveland aims to reduce American workingmen, are well portrayed by that ardent free trade organ, "The Pall Mall Gazette," in an article on chain making. A correspondent of that paper visited a chainmaker's shop recently, and made some inquiries of "the best man, physically, in the group," with the following results: The man had, he said, to work from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M. for five days a week, and to 2 P. M. on Saturdays, a total of 67 hours a week; and his gross earnings were $3 75. He had to pay 75 cents for a blow, and 12 cents dues to the Union. His house rent was 92 cents a week. This left him $1 96 a week, on which to feed, clothe and educate his family. He had worked for three days together on dry bread and two small herrings each day. If bread and potatoes were not cheap, he would not be able to live. That is the condition of workingmen under free trade, and that is the condition that would confront them here, if Messrs. Cleveland and Mills had their way.

The issue of Protection concerns every man and woman who depend upon their own exertions for a livelihood. Everything rests on a popular understanding of the Tariff question, for no voter will go against his own interest knowingly. If you are not sure on the subject, ask for information. The matter is all it is claimed to be. Free-Trade is the ultimate purpose of the Mills bill; Protection that of the Senate bill. Both reduce the surplus, and if the Democratic theory be correct, both reduce taxes. The Mills bill will bring lower wages to workingmen, and the Senate bill will not. How do we know? All such measures have done so in the past. Even children don't put their fingers in the fire a second time.

The rapid increase of the foreign population in France is causing great concern to the Government. Since 1886 no less than 432,000 Belgians, 265,000 Italians, 100,000 Germans, 88,000 Swiss, and 69,000 Spaniards have gone into France in addition to the foreign population previously resident there. In 1881 there were but 381,000 foreigners in a total population of nearly 36,000,000. In 1886 the foreign population exceeded 1,000,000, while the native population remained nearly stationary. The despair of the situation is that births in France are actually diminishing.

It is reported that Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton will shortly tender his resignation. The Commissioner will resign, it is said, in order to give attention to his private affairs, which have been more or less neglected since he went to Washington. His resignation will leave two vacancies on the Board of Civil Service Commissioners, the other being caused by the promotion of Mr. Oberly, who was recently placed at the head of the Indian Bureau.

The United States Senate must be kept Republican by the result of the State Elections, and the House of Representatives must be made Republican by the overturning of the meagre adverse majority there. The way to do the latter is to work hard in every doubtful Congressional district.

General William Henry Harrison used to say in 1840, "We do not believe the price of labor in this free country should be reduced to the standard prescribed by despots in foreign countries." If old Tippecanoe were living he could stand on the Republican platform to-day without a particle of trouble.

A soap mine has just been discovered near Crawfordville, Ga. Let word be sent at once to Chairman Brice, of the National Democratic Committee. He is in urgent need of soap for use in the doubtful States.

As soon as the question of supremacy in base-ball is settled between New York and St. Louis the Gothamites will undoubtedly resume their enthusiastic raising of funds for the Grant monument.

DEJECTED DEMOCRATS.

Governor Hill Will Not Help Grover Cleveland.

NEW YORK, October 21.—Governor Hill returned to New York from his Connecticut trip to-day. Soon after his arrival it was made known that he did not intend to be present on Saturday and review with President Cleveland the parade of Democratic business men. It had been arranged that they should appear together on the grand stand at Madison square, and it was believed that the joint exhibition would go far toward removing the many accepted rumors of bad feeling between them. A committee headed by Joseph J. O'Donoghue had visited Washington and extracted from Cleveland a promise that he would be on hand, but David Bennett Hill said he would form no part of the show. The reason given by the Governor's campaign managers was that his engagements would not permit him to accept the invitation for Saturday, as on that day he was billed to speak at Herkimer in the afternoon and at Amsterdam in the evening; but it was understood among the well advised that this was only a new excuse on the Governor's part to get away from a disagreeable duty.

When the Governor's decision reached Democratic headquarters, Secretary Whitney and Chairman Calvin S. Brice paid a hasty visit to the Hoffman House and were closeted with the Governor for several hours; but Mr. Hill was inexorable. He left town for Albany at 6 P. M.

It is said that the Governor told Whitney and Brice that he thought it made little difference whether they had any more reviews there or not. "The Republicans," he is represented as saying, "will come to the Harlem river with 85,000 to 90,000 plurality for Harrison. If you can overcome that in New York, Long Island and Richmond county, all right. If you cannot, Mr. Cleveland is a defeated man." Whatever he may have said, the Democrats for some cause were in a dejected frame of mind at national headquarters this evening.

DISAPPOINTED MEN.

Nominations Rejected and not Acted Upon by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Oct 20th.—The following nominations were rejected by the Senate at the first session of the Fiftieth Congress: United States District Attorney, Samuel F. Bigelow, for the District of New Jersey. Postmasters—John Duane, West Medford, Mass.; George G. Meeklen, West Point, N. Y. List of offices to which nominations were made and not confirmed during the Fiftieth Congress: United States Marshal, George Moorman, for the Eastern district of Louisiana; Coiner of Mint, Henry Leffman, Philadelphia; for promotion in Revenue Service, Joseph W. Congdon.

United States Consul, Edwin R. Connell and the following Probate Judges in Utah, John Houston, Garfield county; Francis A. Hammond, San Juan county; William O. McGregor, Iron county; Wm. T. Stewart, Kane county; Thomas S. Watson, Wasatch county; James A. Melville, Millard county; Samuel Francis, Morgan county; Superintendent of Indian Schools, Samuel H. Albrow, of New York; also, eleven Postmasters and the following promotions in the Army and Navy; John P. Ryan, Fourth Cavalry; Charles P. Elliott, Fourth Cavalry; Henry C. Hodges, Assistant Quartermaster-General; Geo. H. Weeks, Deputy Quartermaster; General Lewis C. Forsyth, Assistant Quartermaster-General; Albert C. McNutt, Ninth Infantry; Matthew C. Butler, Ninth Infantry; Capers D. Vance, Sixteenth Infantry; Walter K. Wright, Sixteenth Infantry; Leonard Y. Loring, Medical Department; in the navy, Patrick H. Bryant, of Tennessee, to be Assistant Surgeon, and Luther Lochmar von Wedekind, of Pennsylvania, to be Assistant Surgeon.

The Chronicle says:

The Democrats in 1884 made their boasts that they would reduce the expenditures of the Government. But what have they done to make good their vaunt? Why, they have greatly increased the expenditures in every direction. In 1872, with an interest charge of $117,357,839 to meet, the expenditures were only $277,517,932, while in 1887, with an interest charge of only $147,741,577, the Democratic expenditures were $314,153,711. In every branch of the Government where wastefulness can be displayed the expenditures have greatly increased since 1885. The people can draw their own conclusions.

The Lincoln county Republicans in their platform say:

2nd. That President Cleveland has, on every occasion and in every way, done all that he could to injure the State of Nevada; and that it is the duty of every true Nevada, regardless of party politics to recognize this fact by voting to prevent the present incumbent from continuing his ruinous rule, and to elect, in his place, that true and reliable man, Benjamin Harrison.

Col. Mosby thinks Virginia will go Republican.

INDIANA IS ALL RIGHT.

Harrison's Majority Now Generally Estimated at from 9,500 to 15,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 18th.—The second poll of the State is being finished by the Republicans. Complete returns are due at the State Committee rooms Oct. 20th. Many counties have already reported. If the gains continue as the poll books indicate, General Harrison will carry the State by 9,500. He may reach 14,500. The State Committee has confidence in these figures, and so has General Harrison, though the General declines to name majorities, merely saying when asked about his advice that the outlook is bright for Republican success. The work of the party in Indiana has been largely under the General's personal direction. It has been methodical to a degree never before undertaken. Secretary Dille and General Michener have perfected the machinery at Harrison's direction until it is believed the casting of illegal votes can be completely frustrated. The work of rousing various elements has been the feature of the canvass. The young voters, the old ones, the Irish, the Germans, the miners, the farmers, the mechanics, the railroad men and the manufacturers have all been especially looked after. It is estimated that 6,000 Greenback votes and 6,000 Prohibition will be cast for the Republican ticket. The leaders of those elements are on the stump for Harrison. The figures on first voters are: Total, 6,500; Republican percentage, 60, or an aggregate of 4,000, a majority of 1,500 over the Democratic strength from that source.

The Lincoln county Republicans nominated A. W. Geer for Senator and D. C. Clark and J. P. Pujade for Assemblymen. The Democrats nominated Geo. S. Sawyer for Senator and E. H. Pierson and A. O. Lee for the Assembly.

The Savannah (Ga.) News says there are no Southern election frauds. This matter being now authoritatively disposed of, let the campaign proceed.

The United States Supreme Court has declared the Iowa Prohibition law constitutional.

Blaine spoke at Buffalo last night. To-night he will be at Rochester.

The Lake County Examiner remarks: D. R. Jones, who is Postmaster at Plush, Warner Valley, received orders from the department, first of the week, to employ some person to transport the mail from Lakeview to that office, and the carrier's pay should not exceed two-thirds of the receipts, per quarter, of the Plush office. As the revenue of this office is only $3 or $4 per month, it illustrates the colossal gall of this great and glorious government.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it.
